

On a misty day when bat dominated ball, Kiteflyers elected to bat and set a respectable total of 151 for 4 from their 20 overs. New captain, Kenny Steen, was fairly confident the Kiteflyers pace attack could defend this. However, with Chak De's openers racing to 81 off 10 overs, he realized it was going to be an uphill battle.

Chak De lost Anish (34) to an excellent run out by Nick Barsby, but that was the Kiteflyers solitary success. In the 18th over however, they lost the battle and it was Kamlesh (33*) who drilled a 6 off debutant Luis Paredes to seal the game. Captain Kashyap Nansi carried his bat for a chanceless 73, having also been the pick of the Chak De bowlers, despite not picking up a wicket (17 off 3 overs).

Special mentions should go to Kiteflyer Nick Barsby for his 73 not out, with support from Miles Buesst (36) and Garth Lawrence (27); and also to Luis Paredes, aged 11, for an excellent first over in the senior game. His second was ended all too quickly by Kamlesh, but everyone was delighted with how he bowled previously.
