

Sat, March 26th, 2011 – LCFC v Eidgenossen

In the first game of the Clausura, on Sat, March 26th, LCFC, batting first against Eidgenossen, managed to post a score of 148 mainly thanks to Tony Sanford (55) hitting his maiden fifty for the club. He was ably assisted by Seb Navarro (8), who was finally getting some time out in the middle, owing to some injudicious batting and running between the wickets at the top of the order.

In reply, Eidgenossen were never really in the hunt, and stuttered to 82 for 5 off their 20 overs, with Walter pitching in with 3 for 15, alongside miserly bowling from Louis Grandjean (8 for 1) and Tony Sanford (15 for 0) from their allotted four overs. Pick of the Eids' batsmen were Ian Roughton (24) and John Bell (24*).
