

Sunday, March 7th was a grand day out for all involved. In the Twenty20 game, first blood was drawn by Eidgenossen who managed to limit Chak De to 72 all out in 15 overs, with an excellent display of swing bowling backed up by good catching. Tim Nichols and Gary Sargent were the pick of the bowlers, picking up 3 wickets each. Eidgenossen then knocked off the runs, for the loss of only 3 wickets, Tim Nichols again starring with an undefeated 52. The match also marked the debut for Eidgenossen of Luke Bezard, who is undoubtedly a future star of the Peruvian Llamas in the making!

A measure of revenge was gained by Chak B in the Super 8s game that followed. Batting first, they racked up 88 runs, despite some wonderful catching by Cidernossen, resulting in 11 dismissals in their 16 over innings. However, Chak B's disciplined bowling attack, which only conceded 7 wides in total, strangled the Cidernossen batting to a total of 51 runs off their 16 overs.

Super 8 points:

Chak De: 0 new players and a win = 10

Cidernossen: 3 new players = 3.

MVP: Sonu